Template for emergency medicine residency research projects:

1. State the question or problem your research project is intended to address:

2. What are the underlying assumptions?

3. Provide a relevant literature review.

4. What is your hypothesis?

5. Describe the study population:

6. Describe the method of investigation study:

7. Describe the study protocol:

8. Identify potential limitations in the study design:

9. Describe the approach to data analysis:

10. What is the anticipated application of these results?